

Lothian Wildlife Information Centre

Broadening our biodiversity horizons

Saturday 22nd April 2006
Vogrie House, nr Gorebridge, Midlothian at 10.00 a.m.

Programme

- 10.00 Tea and coffee
- 10.30 Welcome and Introduction (Alastair Sommerville, Chairman, LWIC)
- 10.45 What should we be recording – and how? – Adrian T. Sumner
- 11.30 Tea and coffee
- 11.55 Fungi in the Lothians – Prof. Roy Watling, Mycological Consultant, Caledonian Mycological Enterprises
- 12.15 Robber flies in the Lothians – Alastair Sommerville, Ecological Entomologist, Biodiversity Solutions
- 12.35 Freshwater fish distribution in the Lothians – Prof. Peter Maitland, Freshwater Ecology Consultant, Fish Conservation Centre
- 1.00 Buffet lunch
- 1.45 EITHER: Recording around Vogrie estate
OR: Visits to LWIC office
- 4.00 Tea and biscuits.
The results of the afternoon's recording excursions will be collated, the total number of records added up, and the prize awarded for the closest guess to the actual total.